SBU BEARCAT SOCCER 2008 OUTLOOK

INTERVIEW WITH HEAD COACH BENJAMIN WADE

Coach Wade On Recruits...

This year we did not feel the need to bring in a large number of recruits like we did in the past. In fact, as you see the transformation of this team in the past couple of years, you can see that the numbers have gone from 48 (2006) to 38 (2007) to 35 (2008) in terms of squad size. What this should tell you is that we have all of our girls buying into the program, and we do not need to bring in extra players. We know what we have, we know what we need, and for 2008, less is more.

Before our previous season started, I knew that we would have to replace six seniors, four of those were big-time starters, so we set to work on finding those replacements, and are confident that we have done so. This is the best mix we have had in my tenure here, between internationals and local talent. The local talent is good for the community as well as the internationals, whom I have always stood by in terms of diversity and what they bring to the team dynamics with culture, flair and attitude.

Coach Wade On Last Season...

Last season was obviously a good year for us, beating almost every nationally ranked opponent we played, including the highest ranked team any SBU women's soccer team has beaten when we played UCM on the road in October and beat them 3-2 at their place when they were ranked #5 in the nation (double overtime game). We also played in the first MIAA championship game, missing out on a bid for the national tournament by less than three minutes.

However, with that being said (that on the one side it was a success) on the other hand it was not. In everything we do, whether it is soccer, school, or life, we try to instill in these young ladies that they must press on to become bigger and better. So when we found out that we were not going to make it to the national tournament, it was very disappointing, and one of our major pre-season goals was not met.

Coach Wade On The Upcoming Season...

Obviously with UNO joining the conference, a perennial powerhouse, everyone in the already-brutal MIAA will have to step up their game another notch. I feel confident with the players coming in, and with our outstanding junior class, who are coming back from last year with an even greater focus, that we have an excellent shot at getting to the national tournament and making a run for the final four. This was our goal last year, and will be our goal every year until we achieve this goal and then we will raise the bar even higher.

We have a total of six coaches that I am blessed to have under my care, and this will make our practices even more defining in terms of the individual positioning. I expect to come in and play more physical, more high pressure, more smash-mouth soccer than ever before, knowing that we will need every single advantage in 2008 in every game that we play, in order to make it all the way. This team will be an even more diverse and dynamic and exciting team than you watched in 2007.
